Attention Mr. Philip Cabana, Director / CEO

RE: Surgical PPE masks and other COVID-19 related products manufactured by Nanoprom Chemicals (Italy) Srl.

June 2, 2020

Dear Philip,

Pursuant to the contract dated January 28, 2020 (“Contracto Di Agenzia”), my company represents Nanoprom Chemicals (Italy) Srl., an Italian based manufacturing company that emerged as one of the world’s leaders in specialty proprietary nanotechnology coatings currently successfully adopted by NASA, Formula 1, Ferrari, Maserati, Red Bull, European Space Agency, Leonardo Aerospace, as well as many other automotive, marine and aerospace customers. In response to COVID-19, Nanoprom launched manufacturing of a wide range of PPE products. On May 14th, 2020, Nanoprom signed its largest contract to-date to supply its proprietary PPE masks to the Ministry of Health of Italy, an event that was widely covered on Italian television and by various news agencies.

Nanoprom’s current range of COVID-19 related protective products includes the following:

- EASY PROTECT™. A surgical FFP1 medical grade, disposable, non-sterile Face Mask (Type I) comprised of a single layer cellulose pulp and polyester¹ | certified for medical use² by the Italian Ministry of Health³ | fully compliant with both Italian and the EU requirements for FFP1 type PPEs for hospital use.
- SURGICAL STAMP™. Proprietary add-on product to complement existing FFP2 / FFP3 PPE face masks designed to provide an additional level of protection for hospital patients against the portion of the air flow escaping out of the standard valved FFP2/FFP3 type PPE filtration devices.
- FORCE ONE CLEANER™. Universal VOC-free ecologically safe odorless water-based alkaline degreaser that effectively cleans and disinfects while additionally providing long lasting antimicrobial protection against bacteria and virus for a wide range of surfaces, including floors, furniture, computers, medical equipment, etc.
