Dear Sir,

Our country has already completed 80 days of lockdown, 23 days of unlock 1.0 and 24 days of unlock 2.0 due to COVID-19 pandemic. Though it is a challenging time for the whole world but, it can also be considered as a new opportunity to bring many new positive changes.

During any hardship to the country or humanity teachers and media with their unique ability to influence the thought process can be very instrumental in dealing with such kind of crisis situation. On the same line of thinking to counter this pandemic CPDHE (UGC-HRDC), University of Delhi, has decided to organize online Refresher Course on the theme “Role of Journalism, Media and Cinema in Nation and Generation Building” for University and College teachers across India from July 20th – August 1st, 2020.

Seeing the relevancy and impact of all sorts of media on masses this course can be extremely fruitful, for the stake holders and entire nation for setting up the future path of media, journalism and cinema. This course would be good for the academic up-liftment as well as for boosting the inner self of participants to rise with more power of knowledge, positivity and confidence.

We are extremely grateful for your kind consent to be the Resource Person for the abovementioned course. Your exemplary contribution and experience in the relevant field will definitely ignite the creativity and positivity of the participants and they would be immensely enriched and benefitted by sharing of your knowledge and experience.

This online course will be conducted through ZOOM Meeting App. Important requirements for this course have been sent to the participants, so that the online course can be conducted hassle-free. The schedule of your session is as follows:
